

Applications sought for state level stewards and appointed state officer positions

In accordance with the VA RLCA Constitution & Bylaws, each year the president has the responsibility of appointing a state steward and the option of appointing up to six assistant state stewards.

Each year the president also appoints an insurance representative, an editor, a PAC chairman, a state chaplain, Provident Guild representative and an historian. These appointments are usually made at the first board meeting following the state convention.

Members who are interested in being considered for appointment to any of these positions should send the application printed below to:

VA RLCA President

Tom E. Sisk

13303 Nickleson Dr

Woodbridge, VA 22193-4124

email: TESisk14@aol.com

Members wishing to apply for a state level steward appointment should send their application to Tom by certified mail. Appointments need not be restricted to applicants.
